Susie's "Bucket List" at The Inn at Pocono Manor

Dog Sled & Snow Mobile Excursions in the Poconos

Pocono Manor, Pennsylvania, January 19, 2010 ... Susie Weadock-Mann of Baltimore, Maryland, has chosen to live fully every day she has left. Ms. Weadock-Mann, who was diagnosed with stage 4 cancer last summer, responded the news with a strong desire to make every day count and to live her life to the fullest! The 79-year-old mother of four and grandmother of four was profiled last October by the nationally broadcast CBS Early Show*.

Borrowing an idea from the recent popular movie, she developed a "Bucket List" of things she wanted to do while on this earth. This brought her to The Inn at Pocono Manor, because one of the activities on her list was dog sledding and snowmobiling in the Poconos.

This weekend Susie arrives in the Poconos to do just that. Because the snow has temporarily gone from the resort, arrangements have been made with nearby Camelback Ski Mountain, which is making snow. At 10:30 pm this Saturday, after the mountain closes to skiers and snow boarders, Susie is getting her chance at dog sledding and snowmobiling in the Poconos.

Susie states, "As a tennis player, I see this as the last Set of my life! I'm in the Finals of this Match... I'm playing this Game! I have spent my whole life getting to this point. I'm NOT going to spend this last phase with an injury I could have prevented!

“We’re so happy to help make this happen for Susie,” said Robert Sighinolfi, general manager. “She is such an ideal example to all of us. Her message is to waste no time and live every moment to its absolute fullest. We’re glad to help her do so.”

The Inn at Pocono Manor is located at One Manor Drive off Route 314, near the intersection of I-80 and I-380 in Pennsylvania. Camelback Ski Mountain is located near Exit 299 (old Exit 45), Tannersville, of I-80.

The media is welcome and encouraged to attend and meet the extraordinary Susie Weadock-Mann.
