

A Magical Fireside Christmas

The Ultimate Celebration at The Inn at Pocono Manor

There's nothing like a country Christmas, and no place does it better than The Inn at Pocono Manor in Pocono Manor, Pennsylvania. Imagine roaring fires, s'mores, Christmas cookies and cocoa, brightly decorated trees, and sleigh rides, all in one place. In this fast-paced age of technology and speed, an old-fashioned, traditional, and carefree holiday is just what the doctor ordered, and at The Inn at Pocono Manor, families can come together and experience this all in one place.

A quick and easy drive from the city, The Inn at Pocono Manor offers a break from NYC and a chance for adults and children to get away from it all, without having to go far. No crowded airports, no hectic hassles, just good old fashioned holiday fun. The holiday season officially kicks off with a traditional feast on Thanksgiving day at the Inn, followed by a sneak preview of the Christmas celebration, and an official opening ceremony the day after Thanksgiving. The festivities then continue through December 27th, and the year ends with a spectacular New Year's Eve bash.

Every Friday, Saturday, and Sunday throughout the season, the Inn will feature celebratory activity stations for families, which will include s'mores, hayrides, holiday crafts, cookie decorating, bonfires, storytelling, and much, much more. It truly is a winter wonderland. And to complete the feel of a magical Christmas, families can spend time with Santa Clause, himself, and his team of elves.

In addition to the splendor of the festively decorated historic lobby, holiday-themed meals at the Inn's renowned Exchange restaurant, and glowing fireplaces, The Inn at Pocono Manor's spectacular, luxurious spa is getting into the spirit, with "Holiday stress busters" that include an egg-nog latte bath, and "All wrapped up for the holidays" treatments that involve a delightful, soothing treatment with warm ginger cream. While the kids are chatting with Santa and playing with the live animals and holiday crafts, mom can get pampered and feel like a sugarplum princess.

What makes this even better is how incredibly affordable it all is. A family of four can get away for the weekend and experience all of the Christmas festivities and delights, stay in a comfortable and beautifully appointed guestroom, enjoy breakfast, and spend their evenings listening to yuletide stories complete with cookies and cider, all for as low as $148 per guestroom. It's an old fashioned Christmas with old fashioned prices! Additionally, families can choose to add on such unique and fantastic treats as nightly elf turndown, an in-room Christmas tree with all the trimmings, dog-sledding, ice skating, sleigh rides, and more. There's nothing they haven't thought of.

In the spirit of Christmas, The Inn at Pocono Manor is donating a portion of the proceeds to the Make a Wish Foundation, and they are also a drop-off site for Toys For Tots. Bring your family, step back in time, and awaken the child within while taking part in the best Christmas celebration this side of the North Pole.
